CALL FOR PAPERS

VI International Conference on Linguistics "MACEDONIAN LANGUAGE – A SOURCE OF SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH" (Skopje, October 20–21, 2021)

1. Main topic of the Conference:

"Misirkov, Koneski, Korubin – Founders of Macedonian Studies"

2. The Conference will be held on October 20–21, 2021.

3. The Conference will be held:

- in person: at the Institute of Macedonian Language "Krstev Misirkov" – Skopje.
Address: 5 Grigor Prlichev Street, 1000 Skopje, N. Macedonia and
- online: on Zoom.

4. Purpose:

The choice of this year's Conference main topic was motivated by three important anniversaries:

- the 95th anniversary of Krtse Misirkov's death,
- the 100th anniversary of Blaže Koneski's birth and
- the 100th anniversary of Blagoja Korubin's birth.

By celebrating these three anniversaries, the Institute of Macedonian Language "Krstev Misirkov" wants to honor these three important figures, who represent the pillars of Macedonian studies. May the wide horizons of their work and their research motivate you to choose a topic for your paper, bearing in mind the traditional subtopics of the Conference as well:

- The Slavic manuscript heritage,
- Dialectological research,
- Grammar research,
- Lexicological research,
- Stylistic research and
- Sociolinguistic research.

This Conference aims to achieve one of the basic principles of the Institute of Macedonian Language, which is the promotion of the Macedonian language as a member of the global language family.

PUBLICATION INFORMATION AND STYLE-SHEET

The number of pages is limited to 10, written in Times New Roman, in A4 format, size 12 font, single-spaced. Please use the font Times New Roman t for texts written in Macedonian cyrillic.

First page

The name and surname of the author/authors, affiliation, city and country should be placed in the upper left corner. For example:

Temjana Jovanovska
Institute of Macedonian Language “Krstе Misirkov” – Skopje
Skopje, Macedonia

The title should be in central position with capital letters and the abstract should be placed under the title with bold letters, size 10 font. It is recommended that the abstract and the key words be written in Macedonian, but it is also possible to use the language of the paper as well (if the whole paper is written in a language other than Macedonian). For example:

TITLE

Апстракт: Во оваа статија е направена анализа на особеностите на глаголите од семантичкото поле за визуелна перцепција во македонскиот јазик. Посебен акцент е ставен на синтаксичката шема на секој од овие глаголи со осврт на нијансите на значења што секој одделен глагол ги носи. Притоа се анализирали и одделните парови во однос на категоријата аспект во македонскиот јазик со поткрепа на нивната употреба во контексти собрани од електронски списанија.

Клучни зборови: македонистика, синтакса, валенција на глаголот.

A summary (up to 250 words) should be provided at the end of the paper. The summary should be written in one of the widely spoken languages different from the language used in the paper. (The text of the résumé should be checked by a language professional or possibly a native speaker of the language in which it is written.)

Referencing

When quoting, paraphrasing or referring to an author / text, the source should be indicated in the text, not in the footnotes below. The author's surname and the year of publication should be given in parenthesis, e.g. (Koneski 1999). If necessary, provide a more detailed reference with a page number, e.g. (Koneski 1999: 33).

List of references and sources

A list of references must be given at the end of the paper for each cited (or paraphrased) work. Firstly, provide the works in Cyrillic, and then in Roman alphabet, according to the alphabetical order of the authors' surnames. If there several works by the same author, they must be given chronologically. References should not be numbered. If the same author has both authored and coauthored a work, the former should be listed first.

Each bibliographic unit should include the surname and the name of the author(s), the year of publication, and the paper title. For journal articles, it is obligatory to give the name of the journal, the year of publication, the number of the journal, and page numbers. All references should provide the name of the publisher and the place of publication. The titles of the books and journals should be written in italics, while the titles of the papers published in journals or edited volumes should be put in quotation marks. Dictionaries or other types of books written by several authors should be listed by the title and the number of the volume.

Examples:

Book in Cyrillic alphabet

Бицевска Кита. 2001. Правовисни и фонетски особености во ракописите од Северна Македонија од XIII и XIV век. Скопје: Менора.

Book in Roman alphabet
